Text: Stuessy and Lipscomb - Rock and Roll -Its History and Stylistic Development: (4th ed., Prentice Hall, 2002).

Class Goals: The goal of this class is to help you appreciate music by studying the rock phenomenon from its earliest roots to the present. This goal will be achieved through listening to historic rock compositions and the study of various rock artists from the last 50 years.

Class Attendance: I expect you to be present, and on time at all class meetings. Regular attendance is critical to your success in this course. You are responsible for all notes, power point presentations, recordings, films/videos presented in class. Due the size of this class, no talking, sleeping, eating, reading newspapers during class will be tolerated. All of these activities disrupt the educational process. If these common courtesies are not observed, you will be invited to leave the class.

Grading:

Tests – (20% each) - 60%

Recital Attendance – (5% each) 25%

Final - 15%

Grading Scale:

90-100 =A

80-89 =B

70-79 =C

60-69 =D

00-59 =F

Tests : There will be three tests and the final, in this course. The tests may be multiple choice, matching, fill in the blank, short answer or essay. All tests will have a listening component because the goal in this class is to listen to music actively and intelligently. Please bring your student ID during the test days. I may ask to see your ID to verify that you are the person taking the class.

Recital Attendance : You are required to attend at least five concerts. I require you to go to two "Classical" recitals, one "jazz" concert and two other pop/rock/rap/country concerts. The classical and jazz concerts are given by SFA's department of music. You will need to type a page review on all of the concerts you attend. The review should contain your thoughts on the concert. Rock music has its roots from "Classical Music", by attending "classical concerts" you will appreciate rock music even more. You can go to any pop/rock/rap/country concert that you want to attend. These concerts can range from going to a club and listening to a cover band to going to see your favorite rock star in the big city. Please turn in all of your recital programs and reviews in a folder by the final. If you can not go to any rock or jazz concerts, you may go to 5 classical recital instead. (You can not only go to rock concerts and receive full recital credit)

During the summer I will take: Church service, Open mike nights, Student Band Concerts, and up to TWO CD Reviews instead of a live performance. Please only do this if it is impossible for you to see some live music. The goal of this class is for you to appreciate music and the only way for you to achieve this is by listening to diverse styles of music.

Extra credit : I will only take extra credit if you have turn in all of your work. i.e. no missed tested and all of your recitals turned in. I will give extra credit for a final Project. The final project can be over any rock history topic. It can be a paper, a power point presentation, etc. I will give you a handout on the final project if you wish to do this project. You can receive up to 5% of your final grade on this final project. If you go to extra recitals, I will give you extra credit, you have to write a report on each of these concerts. The amount varies depending on the number of extra concerts you attend. Max Extra Credit is 5%.

I will give quizzes that will count as extra credit. You can not make up a quiz for any reason.

It pays to come to class. I plan to have one quiz every week.

I will cover new material and or give a test during dead week.

Students with documented disabilities who need course adaptations or accommodations please make an appointment with me as soon as possible.

If you are having problems, please do not hesitate to contact me. I teach because I love sharing my knowledge with students and will try my best to help you.

Make-Up Test Policy:

Make-up tests will only be given for excused reasons and at my convenience. If you are willing to work with me, I will work with you. Bring in a note to prove your excused absence. You can not make-up a test for an Unexcused Absence or the day before spring break. All make-up test are essay.

The syllabus may be amended at anytime due to the overall performance of the class.
